MEET SOPHIE MCKIE

Sophie began her dance training at Kicks Dance Studio at age five, excelling in various styles including Tap, Ballet, Jazz, Contemporary, and Hip Hop. By 2005, she was teaching at the studio while continuing her own dance training. She completed her HSC dance units at 16 and received a scholarship from West Coast Dance Explosion in 2017 after training at prestigious Sydney studios

Sophie holds a Certificate IV in Dance Teaching and Management and has taught for Australian School Dance. She expanded her expertise in the U.S. in 2010, connecting with international choreographers and educators.

Her career spans choreography and performances in musical theatre, music videos, and international commercials. She has choreographed for Newcastle City Council, led the “Diamond Dancers” as Creative Director, and won numerous awards. Sophie completed a Certificate IV in Training and Assessment in 2017, became an Assessor with the Australian Dance Institute, and has developed dance syllabi for Australian Dance Vision.

Currently, Sophie trains dancers at a competition studio, directs First Steps Bridal Lessons, and runs Milibelle, a company promoting inclusion and positivity in dance. She also adjudicates nationally and internationally, committed to sharing her extensive industry knowledge
